ARTIST OF THE DAY: Now appearing...visit the ARTS FOR EVERYONE/EDGEWOOD STUDIO Facebook page, www.facebook.com/artsforeveryone, where a different area/regional Artist will be featured each day. Among the featured Artists are: A4E Co-Founders, GEORGE & CAROLYN NOWACK; President of the Mercer County Spinners & Weavers Guild, JUDY HANNINEN; nationally renowned Artists DON O'DAY, LYNNE STALLARD-NORTH, DEREK GLADYSIEWSKI, CHEREE FRIZZELL, LINDA BARNICOTT, and TERRY WERNETH! A selection of work by the featured Artist will accompany the post, along with a short biographical sketch, and information on how to contact him or her.

GOING HOME: Coming in March...the sixth addition to the series of Artworks created by G. Nowack honoring our U.S. Armed Forces Personnel and their Canine Service Companions. Each work in this series was created in response to the annual regional event, OPERATION WOUNDED VETZ. Prints of each of these works are available for purchase, with the proceeds going directly to support our wounded Veterans. For more information, or to place an order for prints, contact gnowack@windstream.net.

Pre-orders for "GOING HOME" may also be placed (sorry, no "sneak-peeks!").

COMING IN JULY: Join the Artists of A4E in supporting the ICC "OPERATION WOUNDED VETZ" event which will take place this July, 2018. More details concerned the event will be coming soon.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN!: Join internationally recognized Carousel Artist, George P. Nowack, as he, once again, "takes to the Road" with a demonstration of the Art of Carousel Carving!

Currently, George is completing his replica of the original Carousel Lion which graced the machine at Conneaut Lake Park until 1987. Upon the completion of this animal, he will begin work on a replica of the original Carousel Goat which delighted visitors to the Carousel located at Pittsburgh's long-gone, but fondly remembered, West View Park. If your group or organization wishes to schedule one of George's demonstrations, which includes a presentation of regional Amusement Park History, please contact him at gnowack@windstream.net, or 814-795-6888.
