About Heeschen Gallery

The mission of the Meadville Council on the Arts is to enrich quality of life and provide arts education opportunities for individuals, organizations, and our communities by supporting creation, production, promotion and exhibition of the visual, performance, and craft arts. The Heeschen Gallery is our flexible, venue space that regularly showcases exhibitions for emerging and established artists, and it serves as an educational opportunity for the community to learn about different art forms.

About PASNWPA

PASNWPA is a non-profit organization that advances Fine Art photography in the Northwestern Pennsylvania area and helps provide economic benefits for its member artists. Among its stated goals are: to organize and conduct gallery exhibitions, to provide education on Fine Art photography to the public, and to provide member artists a gallery on the PASNWPA webpage to showcase their images.
